

God's No and God's Yes

A Higher Things® Youth Retreat

Saturday, March 24, 2012

Hosted by:
Our Redeemer Lutheran Church
Dallas, Texas
Rev. Michael Schuermann

We Lutherans talk a lot about the difference between Law and Gospel. You know the terms. But what difference does it make? You've heard about C. F. W. Walther, too, but what's he got to say about this for us today? We'll open up our Bibles, ask each other lots of questions, and find out. Yeah, it makes a difference – in like everything we do: knowing Christ, hearing and sharing God's Word, living every day. It's one of the highest things!

Dr. Carl C. Fickenscher II is Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministry at Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Prior to coming to the seminary, he served two congregations in Texas for a total of fifteen years.

Registration for the retreat is just $25 per person. Download registration forms at www.higherthings.org/retreats or by contacting Pastor Schuermann to email you a registration packet. You can register and pay online or bring forms and checks with you to the retreat.

The Retreat will begin at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 24 with a registration check-in starting at 9:00 a.m., and it will conclude at 5:00 p.m., immediately following the closing Vespers service.

Higher Things is a Recognized Service Organization of the LCMS. Its mission is to help parents, pastors, and congregations promote a Lutheran identity among youth. Higher Things accomplishes this through conferences, retreats, and various print and online media. For more information about Higher Things, please visit www.higherthings.org or contact Sandra Ostapowich, Conference and Retreat Coordinator.
